Thoughts from Father Anthony - Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is called *Lætare (Rejoice) Sunday, from the first words of today's liturgy. As on Gaudete Sunday in Advent, rose-colored vestments may replace violet, symbolizing the Church's joy in anticipation of the Resurrection of Our Lord. The central theme of today's readings is that our salvation is the free gift of a merciful God, given to us sinners through Jesus, His Son. The readings stress God's mercy and compassion and remind us of the great love, kindness and grace extended to us in Christ.

The Scripture lessons summarized: In the first reading, taken from the Second Book of Chronicles, we learn the compassion and patience of God. God chose Cyrus the Great, a pagan conqueror, to become the instrument of His mercy to and salvation of His chosen people exiled in Babylon. In today's Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 137), the Psalmist voices the pain of exile that the captives of Judah suffered. In the second reading, Paul tells us that God is so rich in mercy that He has granted us eternal salvation and eternal life as a free gift through Christ Jesus.

Today's Gospel provides a theme that parallels the Gospel, but on a much higher level. Jesus, the Son of God, becomes the agent of God's salvation, not just for one sinful nation but for the sinfulness of the whole world. Through John 3:16, the Gospel teaches us that God has expressed His love, mercy, and compassion for us by giving His only Son for our salvation. Nicodemus, the wealthy Pharisee and member of the Sanhedrin, meets Jesus by night and begins a long religious discussion. Jesus explains to him that he must believe Jesus' words because Jesus is the Son of God and, by referring to the story of Moses and the bronze serpent (Nm 21:1-9), when the chosen people complained about the desert's severe conditions and regretted that they had left Egypt, Yahweh became angry. "God sent fiery serpents among the people; their bite brought death to many Israelites. The people begged for clemency and Moses interceded on behalf of them to Yahweh. God heard their pleas for mercy and He instructed Moses: "Make a fiery serpent and put it on a standard. If anyone is bitten and looks at it, he shall live" further explains God's plan of salvation. Just as God saved the victims of serpent bite from death through the bronze serpent, He is going to save mankind from its sins by permitting the crucifixion and death of His Son Jesus, because the love of God for mankind is that great. Thus . . . . .

1. We need to love the cross, the symbol of God's forgiving and merciful love: As a forceful reminder not only of God's love and mercy, but also of the price of our salvation, the crucifix invites us to more than simple generosity and compassion. It inspires us to remove the suffering of other people's misery. It encourages us not only to feel deep sorrow for another's suffering, but also to try our best to remove that suffering. Hence, let us love the cross, wear its image and carry our own daily cross with joy while helping others to carry their heavier crosses.
2. We need to reciprocate God's love by loving others. God's love is unconditional, universal, forgiving, and merciful. Let us try to make an earnest attempt to include these qualities in sharing our love with others during Lent.
3. Our rebirth by water and the Spirit must be an ongoing process. That is, we must lead a life of repentance and conversion which will bring us, with the help of the Holy Spirit living within us, to an ongoing renewal of life through prayer, Bible reading, frequenting the Sacraments of Reconciliation and the Holy Eucharist and doing corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

Pope Francis continually insists that mercy is the very essence of God. In his Misericordiae Vultus (The Face of Mercy) Francis expresses it this way: mercy is God's identity card. He says: "We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity, and peace. Mercy is the bridge that connects God and man." (MV2) Pope Francis quotes Saint Thomas Aquinas, who asserts that "mercy is the greatest of all virtues; all the others revolve around it. It is proper to God to have mercy." (EG 37) "Mercy is the very foundation of the Church's life. Let us remember the famous line, to err is human to forgive is divine. That is why the church celebrates the second Sunday of Easter as the "Divine Mercy Sunday" because God has the Ocean of Mercy. The Church's very credibility is seen in how she shows merciful and compassionate love." (MV 10)

The Fourth Sunday of Lent was previously called Laetare (rejoice) Sunday, from the first word of the entrance antiphon for the day, “Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.”

This is a festival of spring for it falls near the spring equinox. In the early Church, the first roses were brought to church for a blessing on this Sunday. The catechumens were decked with roses and roses were mutually exchanged - thus the custom of the rose-colored vestments used today.

RECONCILIATION is the act of re-establishing a damaged or destroyed relationship between two parties. Reconciling humankind to God was the primary work of Jesus and is an essential part of the Good News. According to Catholic teaching, reconciliation with God after one has gravely sinned against Him and reconciliation with the Church, which is wounded by sin, are basic results of the Sacrament of Penance. God is with us and forgives us through His Son in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. He knows our weak human condition and wants us to know the joy which comes as we turn from sin, embrace His life, and experience victory over sin.

To receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation prior to Easter, all are encouraged to attend one of the Lenten Penance Services listed below. No other confessions will be held prior to Easter.

2nd Scrutiny - John 9:1-41
JESUS CURES
THE BLIND MAN

On this second scrutiny Sunday, when we are all invited to look deeply into our lives, we hear the story of Jesus giving sight to the man who had been blind from birth. When He did so, some of the authorities willfully refused to see, refusing to recognize the miracle because it was performed on the Sabbath and attested to by a sinner. Let us look at our own lives and recall the times when we failed to recognize God’s grace, refusing to see with eyes of faith.

 Next Sunday: Jer 31:31-34; Heb 5:7-9; Jn 12:20-33

Question of the Week:

During Lent we call to mind our own blindness.
 How am I blind to God's grace in my life?
 How am I blind to God's work in the world and in the people in it?

The Son was sent by God so that the world might be saved through Him. - John 3:14-21

In today's readings, Jesse's son David is called from his flock to serve the Lord and shepherd his people and Jesus opens the eyes of a man to the wonders of belief in God's son. God also calls us from our ordinary work and opens our eyes through baptism to insight into His mighty works. He calls on us to believe, worship and follow the Lord Jesus, His Son. We are made new, enlightened children of the light of God and must discover what the Lord wants of us. Do we dare follow where He leads us?
